EAGLES GO THROUGH TO PRELIMINARY FINAL

Macarthur Rams 2 Parramatta Eagles 3 (aet)

Mark Fowler was at the Gabbie Stadium

Anthony Panzarino delivered the knock out blow that ended the Macarthur Rams' 1999 season, and in doing so put his team through to the preliminary final against the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

With the game locked at 2-2 after normal time, the teams faced two fifteen-minute periods of extra time followed by penalties, unless they could snatch that golden goal. Snatch it they did, when just four minutes into the first period of extra time Grant Bard showed his undoubted class, turning the ball into the path of Panzarino, who had spurned other shooting opportunities during the game. He would not spurn this one.

It was always going to be a tough way for either team to go out, but one felt for the Rams, who had put behind them a poor first half to get by far the better of the second period. Michael Brookes was outstanding in that second 45 minutes, and twicehe showed great skill to set up Eric Williams for goals.

The game started badly for the Rams when Matthew O'Shea, who has done well since breaking into the first team, was shown a yellow card just six minutes in. The Eagles looked slightly shaky early on, with goalkeeper Jason Holmes causing panic in his defence a couple of times with poor distribution, one such lapse allowing Kain Rastall to fire just wide.

Holmes' distribution was spot on when it mattered though, as after saving a Williams cross-shot on 11 minutes he bowled the ball out to a teammate. A good build-up saw an Eagles player bowled over in the penalty area, and Grant Bard sent John Crawley the wrong way with the resulting spot-kick.

Three minutes later and a good build up saw Maurico Islas, who had an involved game in midfield, find Bard who in turn layed the ball off to Panzarino, but they were unable to match the success they would have nearly 75 minutes later.

Macarthur looked a shadow of their normal composed self, and was giving too many balls away. One such breakdown of passes saw Islas fire over after being presented with the ball by the Rams.

On 24 minutes Brookes whipped a superb cross in from the right, and Williams glanced a header across the goal, but it went wide of the target. It was a lesson that the Eagles would not learn from.

Three minutes after that Panzarino shot weakly at Crawley, and then Islas continued to be involved when picking up the second yellow card of the game.

Despite being second-best in the half the Rams finished strongly, Williams having a header hacked clear and Rastall driving just wide, although Adam Anderson smashed one over the bar right on the referee's whistle.

Two minutes after the re-start Macarthur made it 1-1, when Brookes' cross was met superbly by Williams, in between two defenders, and the Rams no 9 made no mistake as he clinically headed home.

Macarthur looked the stronger team in the second period, although substitute George Wakim pushed a shot over the bar after being set up by the impressive Balla Conde. On the ball Conde looks like a player with all the skills. With ten minutes to go the goal from Macarthur that had been threatening happened, as Brookes beat Sasha Utjesenovic far too easily, before crossing the ball low with the outside of his boot. It just needed a touch, which Williams was only too willing to provide and the stronger looking Rams were 2-1 with ten minutes to play.

Four minutes later a tired looking Eagles side leveled, and the Rams would be upset with the softness of the goal. Anthony Mittiga, who impresses more each game, put a cross over, and while Conde may or may not have got a touch he did enough to put off the defence and goalkeeper, and the fresh legs of Wakim turned the ball in to make it 2-2.

Including stoppage time there were another 12 minutes of play, with both teams pushing forward. Holmes saved his team with a breath-taking save, which kept his team in the game, then with seconds to go and Parramatta on the break, Wakim lost the ball when an unmarked Bard was screaming for the pass.

A quick survey in the press box at full time gave a unanimous result - the only team that would win in extra time would be the much fresher-looking Macarthur. Until Panzarino stepped up to prove he had just been practicing his shooting for the previous 90 minutes, it looked like that would be the case.

A relived Parramatta coach Roberto Viera admitted his team had looked tired, saying they had been unable to train because of the bad weather. He was pleased with the first half performance, but said in the second half his team had not done anything asked of them. He was happy for substitute Wakim, saying modestly that whenever they had brought a young play up through the grades this year they had done the business. One suspects luck plays little to do with it.

Brian Dene from Macarthur saw the game the same way, saying that after a poor first half his team had been superb in the second period, but conceded a poor far-post goal. He praised the players for the work they had put in since previous coach Casey de Bruin had left the club, and said that the five weeks he had had as first grade coach were unbelievable.

PARRAMATTA SCORE SECOND GOLDEN GOAL IN SIX DAYS

Parramatta Eagles 3 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2 (aet)

Mark Fowler was at the Gabbie Stadium

Fresh from their 3-2 nail-biting win over the Macarthur Rams, Parramatta decided that the enjoyed Tuesday nights game so much they would repeat it!

An extraordinary game saw Bonnyrigg play the 20 minutes of extra time with just nine men, Grant Bard level the scores with just two minutes of normal time remaining and Bonnyrigg having to substitute three players in the first 50 minutes due to injury. Mind you, in a Preliminary Final nothing less is expected.

The game started with neither team

able to dominate, although Bonnyrigg looked solid playing with a sweeper system, abandoning their usual flat back four. Parramatta stuck to their usual game, with Malcolm Mielak sweeping behind the big men Paul O'Grady and Mark Revely, and Grant Bard and Adam Anderson up-front.

Bonnyrigg caused some early scares in the Eagles defence through Robbie Gomez and then a Bobby Dragas header, and on 21 minutes Jason Holmes needed to take a ball at full-stretch after Mancino hit a cross-shot.

A minute later though the Eagles scored through influential midfielder Ballamobou Conde. The ball was layed off to him from Grant Bard, and although he looked to have lost the ball under his feet he managed to dig the ball out before being tackled and drill the ball home.

On 28 minutes Bonnyrigg looked like they were going to pull level, when Gomez beat Holmes to the ball on the edge of the penalty area. He squared the ball to Javier Mancino, but the midfielder fired over under immense pressure from Mark Revely. To add insult to injury, Mancino played no further part in the game as he injured himself in the process and was taken of with his arm in a temporary sling.

Seven minutes later and James Warburton limped off to be replaced by Scott Xuereb, meaning Bonnyrigg had lost two players in the space of seven minutes.

A minute later though the Bonnyrigg fans were not too worried who had gone off, as from a corner Bobby Dragas again won the ball, and his header goalwards was chested down by Ray Younis, who then turned and smashed the ball past Holmes.

Five minutes into the second half Bonnyrigg coach John Turner was forced into making his third substitution, goalkeeper Mladen Kos, who had been limping for much of the game, being replaced by Sasha Bozic.

Bozic's first action was to watch a piledriver free-kick from Mielak go wide, but a minute later he was nearly celebrating when Mark Racker stormed down the left wing and cut the ball back to Gomez. His shot was deflected off Paul O'Grady for a corner, although the ball could have gone anywhere.

On 72 minutes came Bonnyrigg's second, and it involved more good work from Racker. Another barn-storming run down the left saw him cut back inside onto his weaker right foot - but there was nothing weak about his pin-point cross that saw Ben Green slam a header past Holmes to make it 2-1 for the Premiers.

Racker then fell awkwardly in a challenge that saw him clutching his ankle, and the unfortunate sight of him being stretchered off menat his team were down to 10 men with all the substitutes used.

With time running out and Parramatta looking down and out, Grant Bard scored a dramatic goal with just two minutes left on the clock. The ball was flicked over his head by Conde, and Bard just got to the ball before Bozic, and was able to lift the ball over the goalkeepers head. The ball hit the post, and actually came back into the field of play before back-spinning into the net. Anything else would have been too easy for the Eagles.

Three minutes later and deep into injury time Bobby Dragas was sent off after the referee was alerted to something by his assistant, and although Dragas had already been booked it was a straight red for the big defender, in what was obviously an off the ball incident.

It meant extra-time for the second time in six days for Parramatta, although this time instead of a 11 men Macarthur team it was a 9 man Bonnyrigg team.

It was all Parramatta in the first period of extra time as you would expect, although Bonnyrigg still looked dangerous on the break, but just when I looked like they might take the game through to penalties, up stepped Bard, with just ten minutes to go. He had already put one nail in the coffin of Bonnyrigg in normal time, and sheer weight of numbers saw him unmarked in the penalty area and able to drill the ball home for the winner.

It was a sad way for Bonnyrigg's sea-

GRAND FINAL Preview

22 rounds of soccer and some grueling semi-finals action later and we are left with just two teams, Blacktown City Demons and Parramatta Eagles. TheDemons had been in the top two for most of the season, with only defeats in their last three games seeing them lose the Premiership to Bonnyrigg. Parramatta on the other hand started slowly, building an imposing record at Melita Stadium but struggling away from home. A 1-0 defeat by Macarthur at home meant the Eagles were in danger of even missing out on the top five, but since then a magnificent run has seen them go unbeaten, and survive three rounds of knock-out finals soccer. Super Soccer takes a look at the players on show -

Blacktown City Demons

1 - Fernando Greco (pictured) - Goalkeeper who has missed just one game this season, away at Sutherland, after being sent off in the game against the Fairfield Bulls. Highly rated player who saved two penalties in the semi-final against Bonnyrigg, including one memorable effort from therebound.

2 - Matty Lowe (pictured) - Solid defender enjoying a fine year at the Demons - selected for the NSW State squad against Northern New South Wales earlier in the year.

3 - Steve Riches - Another member of the strong Demons back-line, Riches has been another consistent performer.

4 - Damien Foxe (pictured) - At the time of writing the Demons were planning to appeal against Foxe's sending-off in the semi-final against Bonnyrigg. If that appeal failed the skipper will miss his teams Grand Final match - a shattering blow for one of the best defenders in Super League.

5 - Chris Bradley (pictured) - Another solid performer for the Demons, Bradley could play more of a defensive role against Parramatta if Foxe is ruled out through suspension.

6 - Damon Langan - Came into the side from the Wollongong Wolves, Langan will look to add that touch of class from midfield.

7 - Jon Angelucci (pictured) - Fiery forward who hasn't converted as many of his chances as last year, but the goals have still come and his all-round game has taken a big step forward.

8 - Steve Berry - Came back into the side after playing in the NSL Grand Final for Sydney United, Blacktown's popular midfielder will add his class and experience to he side.

9 - Stuart Cleary - Striker who scored the winning goal in last year's Grand Final, Cleary has missed much of this term through injury. Showed his predatory instincts though when scoring his tam's fifth against Bonnyrigg in the Major Semi-final.

10 - Jason Bennett - Classy forward who has got better and better as the season has gone on. Once scored four goals in 12 minutes in an NSL match for the Newcastle Breakers, and will finish any half-chances presented to him.

11 - Damien Smith - Midfielder who has picked up some vital goals, including one against Bonnyrigg in the Major Semi-final.

12 - Paul Yates - Big defender who has done well whenever called upon, and started in his team's last game. Could well find himself up against Grant Bard and co come Grand Final day?

14 - Damien Brown (pictured) - Been in sensational form recently, Brown gives him team some real class out wide. Will have to be watched by the Eagles, especially if he manages to get one-on-one with any of the defenders.

of the Demons stong midfielders, Holst will need all his skill when he comes up against the youthful Eagles midfield.

18 - Peter Sermanni - Tough midfielder who gets through the hard work in midfield. Puts his foot in and always seems to be the one who picks the loose ball up, this former Liverpool (UK) player will have a big influence on the outcome of the Grand Final.

COACH - Brian Brown (pictured) - Like his opposite number Roberto Viera, 'Bomber' is in his first season in charge at the Demons. Took over in unpleasant circumstances when Alex Robertson resigned just days before the season started, but has done well in his first season and has impressed many observers with the way he has conducted himself.

Parramatta Eagles

1 - Jason Holmes (pictured) - Goalkeeper who has been one of the best in Super League all season. Has rarely made a mistake all season, and he is instantly recognisable by his bright green goalkeeper's jersey!

2 - Sasha Utjesenovic (pictured) - Has played at sweeper and right back this season, the number 2 always look composed on the ball and likes to get forward. The formation of the team means he needs to supply some quality ball to his front men and midfielders.

3 - Paul O'Grady - Big defender who plays alongside partner Mark Revely, he will face a tough battle with Angelucci on Grand Final day.

5 - Mark Revely - One of the two big defenders that have played most of the season together, Revely, like O'Grady, is obviously strong in the air but has a good touch for such a big man.

6 - Saso Boskovski - The dead-ball expert in the team, 'Charlie' has found himself coming off the bench for the past few weeks as his team continue to win games. Even so, will have a big impact on the game when he comes on to the field.

7 - Anthony Panzarino - One of the batch of youngsters that coach Roberto Viera thinks can do the business, Panzarino scored the winner against Macarthur in extra time and is one of the reasons that Boskovski is on the bench.

8 - Malcolm Mielak (pictured) - Mielak stated off the season playing alongside Grant

Bard up-front, and has ended it playing as a sweeper! When regular sweeper Andrew Dowling left the club a number of players were tried, but Mielak put his hand up and uses his pace to sweep up the few loose balls that get past his two big markers.

9 - Grant Bard - One word could be used in this profile - Class. This guy has ability, can finish and is a hard-worker, and his goals helped lift his team into he Grand Final. Two goals against Bonnyrigg at vital times shows that he is invaluable to the club.

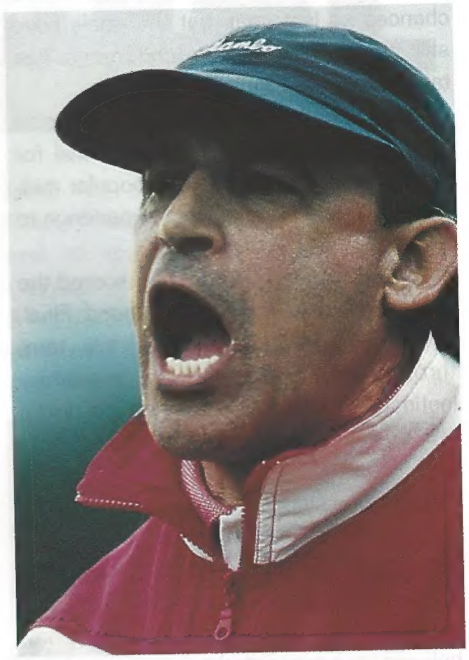
10 - Anthony Mittiga (pictured) - A rare talent playing down the left flank, Anthony has matured as the season has gone on and a Grand Final appearance will do wonders for his confidence. One of a number of youngsters in the side, Mittiga should go even further in he game in he next 2-3 years.

11 - Maurico Islas - A real live wire in midfield, Islas will have to ensure he gets his foot in against the strong Blacktown midfield.

15 - Adam Anderson - Brought up from the Under 21's, Anderson proved a great foil for Bard, scoring 10 goals during the season. Has been substituted in the last two games for George Wakim, so will look to make his mark with another goal on Grand Final day.

16 - Ballamobou Conde (pictured) - A player who made his mark halfway through the season, 'Balla' is now known to Super League followers throughout the state. With the ball at his feet he drives forward from midfield, and a huge future is predicted for this attacking midfielder.

18 - George Wakim - 17 year-old who has come on in the last two games, and scored against Macarthur to level the scores. A striker who will probably start on the bench yet again, but may well get at least half an hour to try and pull something out of the hat.



COACH - Roberto Viera (pictured) - Viera has done wonders in his first season in charge at the Eagles, and has got his team to the Grand Final despite losing their two mid-season signings, Tom Haythornthwaite and Alex Kuzmanovic. Viera has invested in youth instead, and to see a man who so clearly loves the game is a joy to watch.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - After being the laughing stock in Super League circles with some fairly ordinary tips, Super Soccer got back on form last week after predicting Parramatta to defeat both Macarthur and Bonnyrigg. Roberto Viera has pleaded with us to tip his team again, but sorry Roberto, despite doing magnificently to get there we believe the Demons will be just too strong on the day.

The Eagles have got out of jail twice in the last two games, but a third time is too much for the asking...surely?

Tip - Blacktown City Demons 2 Parramatta Eagles 1

Women's National U16 Championships

The New South Wales Under 16 State side came away from Perth with the National Championships under their belt, after defeating Northern New South Wales 2-1 in the final.

The goalscorers for the NSW side were Catherine Cannuli and Leah Blayney, who amazingly are both just 13. Cannuli turned 13 in March, while Blayney actually only turned 13 on the Sunday the championships were starting. The tournament was just another success for Cannuli, who scored four of the team's seven goals, including their goal in their first-up win over New Zealand. As a younger player in the team she had every right to shy away from taking a penalty when the semi-final against Queensland went to the dreaded spot-kicks, but she grabbed the ball and promptly despatched the first kick.

Things didn't go quite as smoothly in the final for her, although a goal after three minutes made a subsequent injury to her wrist, which saw her taken off, seem immaterial.

Cannuli's introduction to soccer came about as her elder brother was playing for Mt Druitt in Super League at the time, and Catherine joined a group of boys kicking the ball around at half-time. Not only did she stand out in that limited time, she was so impressive that she stood out despite a talent-spotter thinking she was a boy!

The General Manager of the New South Wales Soccer Federation, Mr Peter Thorne, saw enough to impress him, and asked to meet her parents. Soon Catherine was on the ITC program at Parklea, and it proved to be the start of her soccer career.

After spending two years at Parklea under the tutelige of Debbie Fisher, Cannuli then had a season at Fairfield City before playing with the Marconi boys team from the ages of 10-12.

Any resentment she may have got from her team-mates quickly vanished though, as playing in Division One of the boys league she was the leading goalscorer in both Under 11's and Under 12's.

This year Cannuli moved away from the boy's team and onto Marconi in the WSL, and despite her tender years she is currently the top scorer there with 18 goals. Cannuli scored all four goals in a 4-0 win against the Gladesville Ravens, as well as notching hat-ricks up against both Nepean and Sutherland, but she will have some way to go before she manages to equal her school record - where she scored 55 of her team's 56 goals!

Team-mate Natasha Cavaretta, goalkeeper for Marconi, said that Cannuli had to adjust after playing and training with the boys, but despite being the youngest player in the team her 'character' and 'determination' always comes through.

"She is a great talent and tries her heart out," said Cavaretta, " She is very determind and likes a challenge, and she gets on so well with everyone else at the club."

Leah Blayney on the other hand has been with the Coerver program at Parklea for the last two years, and in a recent newspaper article by Harry Kewell (which also credited the program for helping hone his skills) the Leeds star mentioned Blayney by name. Not a bad wrap from one of the English Premier League's best players!

Rob Hutchinson, Head Coach of the Girls Soccer Program at the Western Sydney Academy of Sport, which Blayney attended before moving onto Westfields Sports High School, has no doubts as to her ability.

"She is an all-round athlete - a very good hockey player and also a good cross-country runner. She actually ran at the State Carnival last week." said Hutchinson.

"She has a great attitude and is so composed. She is one of those people who if she can't train because of the weather will find somewhere indoors to train."

Hutchinson went on to say, " She is just a lovely kid and from a lovely family." So how good does her former coach think Blayney can be?

"She is potentially one of the best players we have ever produced, and that's not just me who thinks that either. I don't say that lightly, but a number of other coaches think the same too."

The Matildas may have bowed out of the World Cup in the USA in the group stages, but maybe in a few years time these two NSW teenagers will be the ones being watched by over 90,000 people in a World Cup Final....

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND TWENTY ONE SUMMARY

MANLY-WARRINGAH DOLPHINS CLINCH THE TITLE WHILE BATHURST MAKE LATE BID FOR THE SEMIS

Three games were staged in First Division on Saturday and they all had a strong bearing on the outcome of the title race and the finals' series.

Bathurst continued their improvement to defeat Rockdale City Suns on a glorious day in the central west, with a couple of early goals helping their cause.

Rockdale arrived a little late for the 1 pm start, ten minutes before kick off which had to be delayed, and it was not a good day for them with referee Brett Hugo sending off two of their players.

Two goals from Mark Rooke and others from Brad Gallard, Adam Collins and Glenn Wallace helped them to the 5-3 win, with Peter Apolevski and Spase Najdoski who scored twice getting the Rockdale goals.

Bathurst did not allow Rockdale to settle into any sort of rhythm and the game was only five minutes old when Mark Rooke was able to put the home side in the lead. Tony Clancy carried the ball down the right and found Mutton who beat the defence and saw his shot blocked before falling in the path of the oncoming Rooke who finished nicely.

Matthew Baillie was able to get in the way of an Iain MacDonald shot after the talented midfielder had been put through from deep in the 18th minute.

Richard Wilcox was combining well with Brad Gallard and Adam Collins and it was Wilcox who, in the 36th minute, gained possession in midfield and sent over a high cross which Rooke was able to head past the keeper at the second attempt.

Rockdale bounced back just before the break when Goce Trposki got through the defence, drew the keeper and laid the ball back for Peter Apolevski to finish easily for a 2-1 half time scoreline.

Rockdale came out firing in the second half, equalising in the 59th after a free kick had only been punched out by Baillie as far as the lurking Spase Najdoski who slammed the loose ball into the net.

The game was delayed for some time when Bathurst's David Baillie had to be taken to hospital with a serious knee injury in the 58th minute.

The game became somewhat physical after this stage and two Rockdale players, John Manalopoulos and Bill Petrovski were given their marching orders by Sydney referee Brett Hugo.

The dismissals followed a goal from Gallard in the 64th minute after a corner from Wilcox, which saw the other Bathurst player beat the defence at the near post.

Najdoski was able to beat Baillie with a free kick in the 84th after the ball struck the turf awkwardly as it bounced in front of the keeper and deceived him.

A depleted Rockdale then found it impossible to get back in the game and Bathurst forged ahead once more in the 87th with an Adam Collins shot after he had received a good pass from Gallard.

Gallard was again the provider in the 89th when his pass sent Glen Wallace in behind a Rockdale defence trying to spring the offside trap and the youngster found the roof of the net for the 5-3 final score.

Bathurst were at home again the next day to Penrith knowing that a win could lift them into finals' contention.

They had fallen behind to a Bob Casserly penalty after Karim Balloot and Brent Griffiths had tangled in the area and referee Craig Pearce had pointed to the spot.

The wind blew strongly in the faces of Bathurst in the first half and they also had to content with Panthers' keeper Mike Gibson in top form.

Tony Clancy set up Adam Collins for a good chance in the 50th, as the home team began to dominate with the advantage of the wind at their backs after the break, but Gibson dived full length to prevent the goal,

Finally, in the 90th minute, Greg Pell knocked a high bouncing ball over the heads of the Panthers' defence for Tony Clancy, one of the smallest players on the field, to loop a header over the committed Gibson for a well deserved equaliser.

Gallard, Collins and David Donnelly all had sound games for Bathurst in midfield while Penrith's best, apart from Gibson, were Ben Wright, Bob Casserly and Richard Astone.

Manly came from behind to beat Stanmore 2-1 at Arlington Recreation Ground and that result was to give them a stranglehold on the title.

Eddie Briscoe put the Hawks a goal up, cleverly making a run into the box to flick the ball past Dean McCreath at the near post after a great piece of work by Eddie Wong, who had been sent away by a clever back-heel from Malcolm Adams and delivered a low cross from the left byline.

This gave Stanmore the lead on the hour, but a free kick from Alan Hunter, driven low through a crowd of players, put the Dolphins level in the 68th and then top scorer Dean Harding got the winner in the 81st.

A cross from the left by Tom Mikulski saw Harding flick the ball across to the far side where Damian Rosenthal got in behind the defence to nod the ball back for Harding to slam into an empty net.

Stanmore had appeared to be well on top in the first half and when they took the lead it was full reward for their superiority.

But a below par Manly had the fortune that champions need from time to time and in winning a free kick just inside the area for dangerous play by a Stanmore defender inside the box, they were able to witness Hunter score his first goal of the season, with a measured drive.

The loss ended Stanmore's title hopes and left the Hawks with something still to do in their remaining three matches for a finals berth.

St George beat A C United 5-2 in the late game surrendering a 2-0 early lead to be held 2-2 at the break, but a brilliant Stefan Janic hat trick restored their position established by early goals from Louis Dounis and Mark Brennan which were nullified by an own goal and a snap shot from Robbie Cicek before the break.

Saints took the lead with a clever lob from Louis Dounis in the 14th minute after he had taken the ball forward himself and a minute later Mark Brennan picked the ball up in centre field and released a powerful shot from 30 yards out to beat the keeper pointlessly.

A C United came back to draw level before the break, with the wily Osvaldo El Ali instrumental in both of their goals.

El Ali got the ball to the right byline in the 30th and hit a low ball at the goal which Paul Carter unwittingly turned into his own net on the line.

Then in the 45th a ball played by El Ali from a free kick to a square position allowed Robbie Cicek to hit a fierce ball which deflected into the net.

St George made play in the second period but had to wait until the 76th to regain the lead.

Gordon Sutherland threaded the ball through for Stefan Janic to slip the ball past the keeper with a low cool finish.

Janic got in a fine header between two defenders in the 80th minute after a nice cross from Leo Carle who had picked up a poor clearance by the A C defence.

Then Janic again ran onto a through pass in the 82nd to make it 5-2 and though El Ali almost made it three for his side with a volley from 30 yards that nearly caught the 'keeper out, the day belonged to St George.

It was another story the next day when Manly Warringah clinched the First Division minor premiership despite being held to a 1-1 draw at home to St George on Sunday at an icy cold Cromer Park.

The prolific Stefan Janic got the Saints off to a good start with a 16th minute penalty, but Kelvin Foster levelled for the Dolphins in the 32nd with a typical header and the point his team secured guaranteed that they could not be caught for the top spot.

Referee Jim Barnes awarded the Saints a penalty after adjudging Danny Barbalace to have brought down a player in the box and Janic slotted the ball away for another of his cool penalties.

Manly almost drew level in the 25th minute when Greg McKittrick's cross was latched onto by Dean Harding only for Trinity Allen to save down low.

A free kick by McKittrick in the 36th minute, taken from the touchline, saw the ball reach Kelvin Foster whose header found the net for the equaliser.

Manly might have snatched the win in the 75th had Adam Townsend's cross been better served, but Harding's first shot was saved and Matt Godwin's follow up effort was also dealt with by the keeper.

Late in the game St George could have stolen the game themselves when first Mark Brennan's long range shot dipped just over the bar and then Gordon Sutherland's shot from the edge of the area was well saved by McCreath.

The draw was all Manly needed to sew up the minor premiership and with wins in the first two grades already this season it seems that the club championship is theirs as well.

Plenty of excitement at Rockdale on Sunday where Spase Najdoski gave the home side a 6th minute lead only to see Dulwich Hill claw their way back with two second half goals that may well have lifted them off the bottom of the ladder.

Rockdale may have been unlucky not to score two more in the opening minutes, firstly when Goce Trposki was through on goal but pulled up for a contentious offside and then when Iain MacDonald laid on a pass for Peter Apolevski whose shot was saved, but the rebound was mis-hit by Najdoski.

Najdoski missed two further first half opportunities which his side would later rue, shooting just over the angle of the upright and then going wide after Pat Darvill and Trposki had done the spade-work.

Mark Afif was caught out by a long-range effort from Ivo de Jesus in the 49th that appeared to be carried by the strong breeze over the keeper's head for the equaliser.

Following a de Jesus corner in the 63rd, after a free kick had deflected wide, the ball fell nicely for Modar Sultan to tuck the ball into the net for what proved the winner.

Dulwich arrived minus a senior goal-keeper following the suspension of Peter Trajcevski and an injury to understudy David Martin.

Former Manly Warringah Dolphin David Pascuzzo, a midfielder with the club, stepped into the breach and did a magnificent job.

He stood up to the potent Rockdale attack and then watched his side snatch victory thanks to two well taken goals.

Moorebank, meanwhile, were at Hammondville Oval playing one of the few teams they had already beaten this season, Hurstville City Minotaurs.

Moorebank had earned three points from their visit to Hurstville Oval earlier in the year and this time doubled their tally in a 2-0 win.

Adriano Maiorca broke the deadlock of a tense game, played under leaden skies, when he struck in the 80th minute and with Hurstville then pressing hard for the equaliser the livewire wingman Joe Corrente grabbed a second to thrill the vocal home crowd.

A midweek win by Illawarra Lions cast a pall of gloom over the St George camp, as the Saints had entertained high hopes of toppling Manly from their perch. Illawarra were under fire for long periods but profligate finishing by the Saints strike force of Leo Carle, Louis Dounis and Stefan Janic allowed the local Lions to remain in contention until the 88th minute when they score the winner themselves through Valentin Tasevski.

The same player got the winner on Sunday at Mona Park, Tasevksi getting the 27th minute goal to add to that scored in the 10th minute by Alex Krstevski, the only reply for Auburn coming from Huseyin Bayhan in the 49th on a blustery afternoon.

Illawarra Lions came away from Mona Park with another three points after a thrilling 2-1win over Auburn.

ROUND TWENTY SUMMARY

MOUNTIES BACK ON THE WINNING TRAIL BUT FRASER DRAWS LEVEL WITH HAJDUK AGAIN AFTER BELMORE BOILOVER

The big shock of the weekend was Hajduk Wanderers 2-1 loss to Belmore Hercules at Blick Oval. Spectators at the Fraser Park complex who had seen their title challenging side of the same name dispose of Hills United in clinical fashion, sought confirmation of the result which appeared to be a form upset.

It was a disastrous day for the title favourites at a windswept Blick Oval where they were without reliable sweeper Darren Camilleri and where they created countless chances that their strikers could not convert.

Much of this failure to score was also due to the spectacular efforts of Belmore 'keeper Elias Tritsaris who proved a great shot-stopper on the day.

Damien Brown steered a good shot over the bar and Rick Giometti had an effort saved in a disappointing first half by the visitors.

Three minutes into the second period Michael Pfeiffer was caught napping by Leo Alexiou who was able to give Belmore the lead from close range.

Hajduk broke back, however, in the 57th minute, when Trent Worrall crossed nicely for Brown to draw the 'keeper and slot home with a curling shot into the top right corner.

The Belmore keeper continued to defy the Hajduk forwards but on one rare occasion when he appeared beaten J J Ellul managed to lift his shot over the bar.

With the prospect of a draw looming, Belmore produced the winner in the 88th minute, a strong shot from 20 yards by Nathan Hall that beat the keeper all ends up.

For Belmore the return of Theo Petritsis, who had been out injured after signing from Pontian Eagles, was a telling factor, as he held the side together well, with Jim Alipheris, Alexiou and Stellios Sampsonis all making important contributions

For Hajduk it was a game their strikers will want to forget.

Fraser Park, meanwhile, coasted to a 6-2 win, taking their feet off the pedal in the last twenty minutes and allowing the struggling Hills United side to score twice in quick succession near the end.

Anthony Smith made a strong run down the left in the 6th minute and his low cross was turned into goal at the near post, ahead of the keeper, by Matthew Zec aided by a deflection from a defender who was credited with the goal by referee Nick Conditsis.

Another big run by Smith in the 21st saw a low ball from the left steered over the line by Zec at the far post.

Jon Flack burst through a huge gap on the right and into the area in the 42nd to lay the ball back for Sasha Talevski to tap in for a three-goal lead at the break.

A foul on Talevski by Mark Giovenali in the 52nd saw a penalty awarded to Fraser, which Flack converted nicely and in the 63rd it was four nil after John Palapanis had driven the ball from the right hand edge of the penalty area into the bottom left corner of the net, following a long throw from the left by Ante Zizic.

Talevski showed his class as a striker when, in the 74th, he strode through the centre to collect a pass from Zizic, which a defender appeared to have covered, but the Fraser player did not hesitate and made the ball his own, going on to find the net nicely.

Late in the game Hills bounced back with two late goals, a long ball from Giovenali setting up Francois Finianos to go on and beat Luke McGuire in the 77th and then a solo run by Ricky Moscato which ended with a nice low shot made it 6-2 at the finish.

The win allowed Fraser to draw level with Hajduk, but the loss leaves Hills in some peril.

Mount Druitt suffered another bad loss at Popondetta Park, going down 1-5 to top four contenders Sydney University.

Paul Graham scored for Mount Druitt in the 12th minute, but a Rob Smithies goal in the 29th cancelled that one out and further goals from David Gill in the 35th and Don Brown, a well struck free kick, in the 38th had the students ahead 3-1 at the break.

Brad Docker added a fourth in the 57th and David Bromhead parcelled it up in the 75th to give the side a chance of getting fourth place at least in this, their first season at this level in many years.

The game at St George Stadium between Hurstville and Arncliffe was a good one with a stiff breeze off Botany Bay behind the Arncliffe Scots in the first half.

With neither side creating many chances, the only goal of the game came after good lead up work by Kenny Velovski whose pass to Zlatko Nastevski saw the veteran put a great ball through for Robert Todorovski to run through and beat the advancing keeper in the 30th minute.

In the second half, Hurstville put a lot of pressure on Arncliffe with a few scrambling efforts, but they could not break through.

Hurstville had a great opportunity towards the end of the game where Mario Mrkic had a one on one with the keeper, but Bernie Sheary the Arncliffe keeper did a magnificent job to keep the opposition from scoring.

The win dented Hurstville's hopes and elevated Arncliffe to third spot, their best position to date in this division, though there are more twists and turns to this season ahead of both them and Hurstville.

A bottom of the table clash featuring Uni of NSW and Sydney District at David Phillips produced little in the way of goals, but much in terms of action. With both teams desperate for a win to avoid relegation, it was always going to be a tight match with players from both sides on the edge.

The visiting District side started well and created a couple of early chances which Uni could be considered lucky to remain unpunished from.

The District strikers were running well and a flatfooted Uni didn't really come into the game until the fifteenth minute. David Nejedly was partnered by Nestor Moreno up front for the home side, and they combined well on a number of occasions.

Nejedly turned and shot straight at District keeper Leo Espinosa three times and Moreno found the woodwork when he should have done better. Moreno did head well from a Joe Budnick cross, but Espinosa scrambled to his right and averted a certain goal.

Uni were back to near full strength and 18 year old Charlie

Claridge was welcomed back to the left wing. His strong running and good crosses kept Uni well on top for most of the first half.

Uni's missed chances were almost punished by District when Marco Quintao found himself with space and only the keeper to beat.

Nick Apoifis, however, had another great match in the Uni goal and saved well to keep the score even at the break.

The second half was action packed and the Wales created more chances, but failed to find the target each time. They finally hit the lead when a Nick Kodomichalos free kick was dropped by Espinosa after a strong challenge from Moreno.

Flame haired Dax Bykerk was on hand to score from close range and that looked like settling the issue. In fact when Jonathan Dumoch was released by Claridge, he should have put the issue beyond doubt, but Dumoch failed to hit the mark and a lifeline was thrown to the visitors.

Sydney District did not give in and were rewarded in the last five minutes. A string of corners had the students on the back foot and their inability to clear was punished when a goalmouth scramble saw the ball fall to Malcolm Dominguez who finished easily from twelve yards past a crowd of players and the points were shared after all.

Uni has now failed to hold the lead eleven times and many of those have been in the last fifteen minutes. They should take that into account if they want to find success next season.

The game at Cook Park between Mount Pritchard and Greystanes started out fairly even with both teams going up and down the field to no avail.

After a busy opening period of the game which had seen shots by Anthony Crea and Brendan Wilson saved nicely by Mounties' keeper Matt Darwen and some good work at the other end by Mounties players Anthony Vicaretti, Adam Hartas and Frank de Filippo, the deadlock was broken in the 41st min when Vicaretti finally put the Mounties on the board after accepting a pass from Franco Cosentino.

Three minutes later Franco Cosentino cleverly held the ball up long enough to pass to Lam Quach who stroked the ball past the keeper David Apps, who had been drawn out to make the save.

The Mounties attacked with some purpose throughout the second half but met their match in 'Stanes' keeper Apps.

After many chances had been denied by the long serving custodian the 89th minute saw Clinton Green bombard the keeper and then have a follow up shot saved by defender Anthony Crea and then Franco Cosentino had shots saved again by the keeper.

For Mounties Matt Darwen as captain, while John Cosentino is overseas, did a good job to guide his team from the back. Also the Mounties midfield worked well with 16 year old Adam Hartas making his home debut and wing back 16 year old wing back Craig Morton having a fine game as well.

LEADING SCORERS:

20 Matthew Zec (Fraser Park)
18 Damien Brown (Hajduk)

ROUND TWENTY ONE PREVIEW

The big game among five deferred games being played this Sunday is the match at Hajduk Stadium which brings together the two top sides Hajduk Wanderers and Fraser Park.

It is sure to be a cliff-hanger and whoever wins, if there is to be a winner, should go on and win the premiership.

Last time the sides met Fraser won 2-1 and it is likely to be just as close this time too. The team that wins still has another game to play next week, but it does seem likely that the final match will be within that team's reach.

Round 25 review

With a full round of action plus three re-arranged games played on the Sunday it was a busy weekend in the Super Youth League.

G13

Blacktown City Demons picked up yet another three points on Saturday, although after demolishing every side before it was much harder against the Leichhardt Tigers, before the Demons got up with a 2-1 win. Wollongong went into the weekend in second place but seventeen points behind the leaders, but they won again with a 2-1 victory over the Southern Districts.

Sydney Olympic defeated the Gladesville Hornsby Association 2-0, while Newcastle in fourth entertained the Macarthur Rams and won 1-0.

The Parramatta Eagles missed a chance to go above the Gladesville Hornsby Association as they were held to a 0-0 draw at home to the Southern Branch, and Marconi Fairfield were also held to a draw, 1-1 against the Sutherland Sharks.

It was the same scoreline when Eastern Suburbs and Manly Warringah Dolphins played at Hensley Athletic Field, but bottom club Central Coast went down 1-0 at home to Sydney United.

On Sunday Newcastle Breakers and the Leichhardt Tigers fought out a 0-0 draw at Breakers Stadium, while Marconi Fairfield were once again held to a draw by a team below them, drawing 2-2 at the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

Parramatta Eagles picked up three points from their re-arranged match with the Central Coast at Pluim Park, winning 3-0.

G14

Sydney Olympic are making it tough for the chasing teams, maintaining their five point lead after winning 2-0 at the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who went into the game in second place.

Sydney United moved above the Association side and into second courtesy of a 4-1 win at the Coasties, and Blacktown moved level on points with Gladesville Hornsby after winning 1-0 at Leichhardt.

Southern Districts were next on the table but were held to a 1-1 draw with Wollongong, who are one point behind, and they were being followed by the Newcastle Breakers.

Unfortunately for the Breakers though they went down 2-1 at home to the Macarthur Rams, when a win would have seen them move up at least one place.

Sutherland were next on the table and drew 2-2 with Marconi Fairfield, who went into the game just one place below the Sharks, while at the bottom the Manly Warringah Dolphins picked up their third win of the season, defeating Eastern Suburbs 2-1.

The days other game saw the Parramatta Eagles and the Southern Branch draw 3-3 at Melita Stadium.

Onto Sunday, and it got even better for the Dolphins, as they made it four wins for the season with a 2-1 win over Marconi Fairfield.

Those wins meant the Central Coast went back to the bottom of the table, as they lost 2-1 to the Parramatta Eagles, and the Leichhardt Tigers had a fine 3-2 win over Newcastle away from home.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Saturday's games at the top of the table after defeating the Leichhardt Tigers 1-0.

Their nearest opponents, the Gladesville Hornsby Association, were held to a 3-3 draw by Sydney Olympic, giving the Demons a five point lead at the top.

Marconi Fairfield closed the gap between then and second place with a 1-0 win over the Sutherland Sharks, but the Southern Districts in fourth went down 3-2 at Wollongong.

Sydney United were in fifth and defeated the Central Coast 2-0, but Newcastle lost ground as they were hammered 4-0 by the Macarthur Rams.

The bottom two played at Melita Stadium and it was the Southern Branch who got through for their first win of the season, winning 2-0 over the Parramatta Eagles, while also at the bottom Eastern Suburbs downed the Manly Warringah Dolphins by the same score.

Sunday's games saw a few lop-sided results, Marconi Fairfield keeping up the pressure with a 7-1 victory over the Dolphins, and Newcastle Breakers defeating the Tigers 5-1. the days other game saw the Central Coast close the gap on Leichhardt with a 2-0 win over the Parramatta Eagles.

G16

The Leichhardt Tigers missed out on a chance to put some pressure on Sydney Olympic when they went down 2-1 at home to Blacktown, but Newcastle in third going into the weekend's matches did pick up three points with a 2-0 win over the Macarthur Rams.

Wollongong Wolves were in fourth at the start of play but lost 3-2 to the Southern Districts, so Blacktown's win meant the Demons went above them. Parramatta were another home team to pick up a 2-0 win, defeating the Southern Branch, while the Central Coast surprised Sydney United with a 1-0 win. The bottom club Eastern Suburbs drew 2-2 with the Manly Warringah Dolphins, and Marconi Fairfield defeated the Sutherland Sharks 3-1.

Sunday saw a 6-1 win for Newcastle over Leichhardt, making it a miserable weekend for the Tigers, while Parramatta made it two 2-0 wins in two days after beating the Central Coast.

The day's other game saw Marconi Fairfield go to Cromer Park to face the Manly Warringah Dolphins and come away with all three points courtesy of a 4-0 win.

Division One Youth League

There were a number of re-arranged games played in Division One of the Youth League, as teams sought to try and make up the fixtures washed out from two weeks ago.

Round 22 review.

G13

The week started with St George defeating Canterbury Marrickville 2-0 in a round 20 re-arranged match, meaning the Saints went into the weekend in fifth spot.

Saturday's games saw a full program go ahead, and the Illawara Lions ensured that they would at least keep their 13 point lead at the top of the table after beating St George 4-0 at the BHP Sports Ground.

The Bankstown Association in second did all they could, winning 10-1 over the Fairfield Bulls, but AC United in third went down 1-0 to the team who were in fourth before the game, the Blacktown Association.

Bonnyrigg were unable to go back above St George as they could only draw 1-1 with Ryde City, and Hills United moved within a point of the White Eagles after winning 4-1 at home to Canterbury Marrickville.

Rockdale follow Hills on the ladder and won 2-1 at home to the Stanmore Hawks, and those two clubs are being chased by Penrith, who won 2-0 at home to the Canterbury Association.

Onto Sunday, and there were another four games played, all of which had a big impact on the ladder.

Illawara stretched their lead further at the top of the table after inflicting AC United's second defeat in two days, a 3-2 win at Abruzzi Oval, and at the bottom the Fairfield Bulls moved off the bottom of the table and above Canterbury Marrickville after a 2-1 win at Henson Park.

Hills United finished their profitable weekend with another win, 4-0 over the Canterbury Association, as did the Rockdale City Suns, who won 2-0 at Penrith, who had gone into the game five points behind their visitors.

G14

St George drew with Canterbury Marrickville 0-0 in a round 20 re-arranged match during the week, a good result for Canterbury Marrickville against a team who could have gone fourth with a win.

Saturday had all the teams in action, and Ryde City look to have the title sewn up after defeating their main challengers, Bonnyrigg, 1-0 at the Serbian Centre.

The win gave Ryde an eleven point cushion at the top, but the home side stayed second despite their loss as AC United also went down, losing 2-1 to the Blacktown Association.

Penrith started the day in fourth but lost 2-1 at home to the Canterbury Association, and St George drew another game, this time 1-1 at Illawara.

Canterbury Marrickville went to Hills United and shocked the home side with a 2-1 victory - only their third of the season.

The Fairfield Bulls at the bottom would have been happy with their 2-2 draw at home to the Bankstown Association, and the days other game saw the Rockdale City Suns defeat the Stanmore Hawks 3-0.

Sunday's games AC United bounce back from their defeat the previous day to pick up a 3-1 victory over the Illawara Lions, and the bottom two picked up more points when Canterbury Marrickville and the Fairfield Bulls drew 1-1.

There was another draw at Punchbowl Oval where the Canterbury Association and Hills United drew 0-0, and Penrith made it one win from two games when they got up 1-0 over the Rockdale City Suns.

G15

Saturday saw some important games in this league, and AC United ensured they would take come catching with a 2-0 win at the Blacktown Association.

Bonnyrigg were second going into the days games and they picked up a 1-0 win over Ryde, while Hills United in third won 3-0 at home to Canterbury Marrickville.

Hills were one of a number of teams nine points behind the second-placed White Eagles, but one of those were Ryde before they went down to that same team.

The Blacktown Association were the next team in the chasing group to lose, as did the Bankstown Association, who went down 1-0 at the Fairfield Bulls.

Illawara were held to a 1-1 draw by St George, as were Penrith in a 0-0 scoreline against the Canterbury Association.

Stanmore picked up a good three points against the Rockdale City Suns with a 3-0 win, the Suns also going down on Sunday, 3-1 to the Penrith panthers.

Those two losses saw Rockdale go bottom as Canterbury Marrickville won 1-0 over the Fairfield Bulls, while at the top AC United picked up another point after drawing 0-0 with the Illawara Lions.

Hills United made it two wins from two games, winning 1-0 over the Canterbury Association.

G16

Like the other age divisions there is a team pulling away at the top of the table, with the Bankstown Association maintaining their good form with a 3-2 win over the Fairfield Bulls.

That win saw them seven points clear after Saturday's games as Ryde City, who were in second, went down 1-0 to the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

The Blacktown Association took advantage of the Gunners' slip and moved into second with a 2-1 win over AC United, but Illawara in fourth could only draw 1-1 with St George.

Stanmore went into the day in fifth spot and picked up a 2-1 win over Rockdale, but Penrith in sixth went down 3-1 to the Canterbury Association.

Hills United moved up a couple of places after their win over Canterbury Marrickville, but they came unstuck on Sunday when they played the Canterbury Association and lost 3-0.

Sunday's two other games saw 1-1 draws in both, with Penrith and Rockdale and then Canterbury Marrickville and the Fairfield Bulls sharing the spoils.

Division Two Youth League

Round 19 review

G13

The Nepean Association stayed top of the G13 table after the week's games, although they did lose their two point lead in the process.

They defeated Hawkesbury City 3-0 at Richmond Oval in a round 16 re-arranged match, but were held to a 1-1 home draw in their round 19 game with Hajduk Wanderers.

The Ku-ring-gai Association went into the game in second place, and after picking up a 4-0 win over CSI Schofields away from home on the Saturday, doubled that against Parramatta City on the Sunday with an 8-0 win, seeing them behind the Nepean Association merely on goal difference.

Hawkesbury City suffered two defeats in the week, as in addition to going down to the Nepean Association they also lost 1-0 to Mt Pritchard on Sunday.

The day before their 8-0 defeat by the Ku-ring-gai Association Parramatta City picked up their second point of the season after a 1-1 draw with the Camden Tigers.

Macquarie Sports and Mt Druitt went into their game on Saturday with the home side just two points ahead of their visitors, but a 3-2 win for Macquarie sees them stretch that to five points and remain in third spot.

The Granville Association went above Hawkesbury City after picking up a 3-2 win over Moorebank Sports, and also saw Hawkesbury City lose their game in hand after going down to their two defeats.

G14

Two teams went into round 19 locked together on 31 points, but it was Macquarie Sports who picked up a 2-0 win over Mt Druitt to move three points clear at the top.

Mt Pritchard were the other team who were joint top, but they went down on Sunday 3-1 to Hawkesbury City to slip three points behind their rivals.

CSI Schofields were in third at the start of play but crashed 3-0 to the Ku-ring-gai Association, so the Nepean Association shot up from fourth after picking up two wins. The first was a 2-1 win over Hawkesbury City in their round 16 re-arranged match, and then a 2-1 win over Hajduk Wanderers in their round 19 game.

The Camden Tigers picked up three points with a 1-0 win over Parramatta City, who went down on Sunday by the same scoreline to the Ku-ring-gai Association. The Association side's six points in two days also seems them move in contention for the top spot.

At the bottom of the table Moorebank Sports remains without a win after going down 3-0 to the Granville Association.

G15

Hajduk Wanderers kept up their winning run, coming away with three points from the Nepean Association after a 3-1 win. Despite that though their lead was cut by three points to just four points, as Parramatta City defeated the Camden Tigers 1-0 on Saturday and backed up to win 3-1 over the Ku-ring-gai Association.

That defeat cost the third-placed Ku-ring-gai Association dearly, as despite a 5-0 win on the Saturday against CSI Schofields it means they will be struggling to catch the top two.

The Nepean Association had beaten Hawkesbury City 2-1 in their re-arranged game, and Hawkesbury ended up with one point from their two games after drawing 1-1 with Mt Pritchard on Sunday.

Saturday's other games saw some close results, Macquarie Sports edging out Mt Druitt 1-0 and the Granville Association and Moorebank Sports drawing 1-1.

G16

Leaders the Nepean Association are looking good at the top of the table after the weekends games, as they picked up victories in both their regular match and a re-arranged one.

A 3-0 win on the Saturday over Hajduk Wanderers and a 6-1 thumping of Hawkesbury City in their round 16 game sees the Association side now with a handy six point lead at the top of the table.

It was Hawkesbury City's second heavy defeat of the week, as they lost 4-1 to Mt Pritchard on Sunday as well.

The Camden Tigers are the team six points behind the leaders, although they did their bit when defeating Parramatta City 4-3, their opponents picking up a point the next day in a 0-0 draw at the Ku-ring-gai Association.

Mt Druitt went into the weekend in third but suffered a surprising 1-0 defeat by Macquarie Sports, and the Granville Association accounted for bottom of the table Moorebank Sports 3-0.

The Ku-ring-gai Association picked up four points from their weekend, as in addition to their 0-0 draw with Parramatta City they also defeated CSI Schofields 3-0.

Cadet League Division One

Round 18 review

G11

After last week's near total wash-out there was a full program of games on the weekend, with Bonnyrigg and Marconi Fairfield also playing a catch up game which was re-scheduled from round 16.

That game finished 1-0 to the Marconi Fairfield side, but it was to be their only success for the week as they went down 3-0 at home to the leaders Canterbury Marrickville. The leaders also accounted for St George 3-1, but although they have a six point lead at the top Sydney United in second do have two games in hand.

Bonnyrigg sit second to bottom of the table, and although they also lost their round 18 game, at home to the Parramatta Eagles, they were once again not disgraced in going down 1-0.

Eastern Suburbs picked up its third win of the season when they beat Ryde City by the same score-line, while Sydney United kept the pressure up on Canterbury Marrickville by also winning 1-0, this time over Parramatta City.

There was a 0-0 draw between the Macarthur Rams and the Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park, a result which would have probably left the Rams team the happier of the two.

G12

Sydney United took advantage of their game in hand over second placed Parramatta Eagles on the weekend, winning 2-1 over Parramatta City to open up a four point lead.

St George moved above Marconi Fairfield and into third after winning 2-0 at Canterbury Marrickville, but there is a big gap between the top four and the fifth-placed Macarthur Rams, who defeated the Leichhardt Tigers 4-0.

Eastern Suburbs are level on pooints with the Macarthur Rams, and like the Rams they also won, 1-0 at Ryde City.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 21 review

After last weeks complete wash-out in the Cadet League Division Two, there was a full weekend of action as some teams played catch-up games.

G11

Leaders Macquarie Sports went into the weekend with a three point lead over the Illawara Lions, and did their best to maintain that with an easy 7-0 win over Moorebank Sports.

The Lions though drew level on points, as they played two games and were good enough to pick up the maximum six points.

A 4-0 win over CSI Schofields and a 1-0 win over AC United means that Macquarie Sports now lead only on goal difference, although they do have a game in hand over the Lions.

AC United were sitting in fourth place and could have made a charge for the top three, but that loss and another 1-0 defeat, this time to the Penrith Panthers, sees them too far away now.

In contrast the Panthers were another team to pick up six points, as they also defeated Mt Pritchard 2-0, who also lost 5-0 at Hawkesbury City.

Stanmore Hawks sit in mid-table after a 1-0 win over Hills United, while Hajduk Wanderers defeated Hurstville City Minotaurs 4-1.

G12

In the G12 competition the Stanmore Hawks look good at the top of the table, and they picked up a hard-fought 2-1 win over Hills United.

Penrith lead a group of teams valiantly chasing the Hawks, and they picked up a 4-0 win over Mt Pritchard as well as drawing 0-0 with AC United.

Macquarie Sports dropped two points behind the Panthers but now have a game in hand after winning 5-0 over Moorebank Sports, but AC United were unable to pick up a win in their two games, picking up another 0-0 draw with the Illawara Lions to add to their one with Mt Pritchard.

The Lions were another team hoping to close the gap, but in addition to that draw they also lost 1-0 at CSI Schofields.

There was a 1-1 draw between Hajduk Wanderers and Hurstville City Minotaurs, while Mt Pritchard couldn't add to their one point against the Penrith Panthers as they also went down 4-0 to Hawkesbury City.
